2. Application of Conditions

- 2.1 These Conditions apply to all contracts for the provision of CSL's services and may not be varied without CSL's written consent.
- 2.2 The Contracts (Rights of Third Parties Act) 1999 shall not apply to these Conditions or to any contract made for the provision of CSL's services.

3. CSL's Obligations

- 3.1 CSL shall complete the Assignment for the Client as agreed in the Proposal.
- 3.2 CSL retains the right to sub-contract the completion of the Assignment to a third party.

4. Client's Obligations

- 4.1 The Client shall promptly provide CSL with all necessary information to enable CSL to complete the Assignment. If a Client learns it has provided CSL with inaccurate information it must advise CSL without delay.
- 4.2 The Client shall pay the Fees to CSL within 30 days of CSL's invoice date, whether the invoice be final rendered on completion of the Assignment or an interim bill.
- 4.3 All sums due to CSL shall be paid in either pounds sterling, US dollars or Euros to be agreed in the Proposal and any exchange risk, bank transfer costs or withholding taxes shall be borne by the Client.
- 4.4 Should the Client fail to pay an invoice within 30 days then until such sums outstanding are paid in full CSL retains the right to:
 - 4.4.1 apply both a single fixed penalty of 10% to the gross invoice value or £5 (or its equivalent in the invoice currency) whichever is the greater and 2% per month from the due date of the invoice.
 - 4.4.2 suspend activity on the Assignment or any other Assignment CSL has undertaken to complete for the Client.
 - 4.4.3 bring legal proceedings against the Client in respect of outstanding sums and for any loss or expense sustained by CSL as a result of the Client's failure to pay.

5. Exclusion

- 5.1 The liability of CSL in connection with the completion of the Assignment, whether in contract, tort, negligence, breach of statutory duty or otherwise shall be limited to not more than the total Fees payable by the Client to CSL.
- 5.2 CSL accepts no liability for:
 - 5.2.1 the Client's subsequent use of the Assignment
 - 5.2.2 any loss or damage to any documents or other data supplied by the Client to CSL.
 - 5.2.3 any Project or Warranty Survey which may have been waived by the client or their representatives including any waived following Survey Sampling.
 - 5.2.4 any claims arising from surveys waived as a result of Survey Sampling.
- 5.3 Any claim by the Client against CSL arising in respect of any service provided for the Client, or which CSL has undertaken to provide, shall be made in writing and notified to the Company within 14 days of the date upon which the Client became, or ought reasonably to have become, aware of any event or occurrence alleged to give rise to such claim, and any claim not made and notified as aforesaid shall be deemed to be waived and absolutely barred, except where the Client can show that it was impossible for him to comply with this time limit, and that he has made the claim as soon as it was reasonably possible for him to do so.

- 5.4 Notwithstanding the provisions of 5.3 above, CSL shall in any event be discharged of all liability whatsoever and howsoever arising in respect of any service provided for the Client, or which CSL has undertaken to provide, unless suit be brought and written notice thereof given to the Company within twelve months from the date of the event or occurrence alleged to give rise to a cause of action against CSL.

6. Warranty Surveys (Projects)

- 6.1 Notwithstanding the provisions of 5 above CSL agrees to undertake Warranty assignments on the following conditions:
 - 6.1.1 CSL agree to undertake any Warranty surveys and make recommendations which CSL consider necessary to reduce the property risk to the Client or any other interested parties. If these recommendations are complied with before commencement of a Project, CSL will issue a Certificate attesting that the project presents no circumstances beyond those which might normally be accepted by the Client and that, accordingly, the Client or any other interested parties have complied with that warranty. CSL may also make recommendations, which can only be carried out after commencement of the project. These recommendations must also be complied with or any Certificate, document, report or communication produced by CSL shall be deemed withdrawn.
 - 6.1.2 Unless CSL indicates otherwise, the issuance of a Certificate will be based; (a) upon external conditions observed by CSL without opening machinery or spaces normally closed and (b) upon information provided to CSL. If CSL is provided misleading or erroneous information, our Certificate shall be deemed withdrawn.
 - 6.1.3 In issuing any Certificate, CSL does not warrant the safety of the contemplated Project or the seaworthiness of any associated vessel or vessels. The sole purpose of the Certificate is to attest that, provided CSL's recommendations are carried out, the Client or any other interested parties have complied with the aforementioned warranty. Accordingly, since its recommendations are made for no other purpose CSL shall not in any circumstances be responsible or liable to any person for any act, omission, default, negligence or breach of express or implied warranty in connection with the survey or the Certificate or for any loss, damage or expense howsoever caused which may subsequently occur.
- 6.2 Notwithstanding the provisions of 5 above all Warranty/Project assignments include pre-shipment planning, scoping and consultancy work, management time, co-ordination and administration. The CSL fee is non-refundable.

7. Termination

- 7.1 Without prejudice to any other right or remedy it may have, either party may terminate this agreement at any time by notice in writing to the other party, such notice to take effect as specified in this notice:
 - 7.1.1 if the other party is in breach of this agreement and, in the case of a breach capable of remedy within 14 days, the breach is not remedied within 14 days of the other party receiving notice specifying the breach and requiring it to be remedied; or
 - 7.1.2 if the other party becomes insolvent, or if an order is made or a resolution is passed for the winding-up of the other party (other than voluntarily for the purpose of solvent amalgamation or reconstruction), or if an administrator, administrative receiver or receiver is appointed in respect of the whole or any part of the other party's assets or business, or if the other party makes any composition with its creditors or takes or suffers any similar or analogous action in consequence of debt.
- 7.2 Termination shall not affect CSL's right to payment accrued up to the date of termination.
- 7.3 No waiver by one party of any breach by the other party of these Conditions or of any other contractual terms agreed between them shall be deemed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach of contract.

8. Intellectual Property

The unrestricted ownership of the Rights and sole entitlement to obtain protection including but not limited to copyright over, design rights over, patents or registration of everything produced by CSL shall vest in CSL and remain vested in CSL at all times whilst undertaking and following completion of the Assignment.

9. Force Majeure

If either party is rendered unable by Force Majeure to perform or comply fully or in part with their obligations under the Assignment upon the party's giving written notice to the other party of such Force Majeure within 48 hours after receiving notice thereof, such performance or compliance shall be suspended during the continuance of inabilities so caused and such party shall be relieved of liability and shall suffer no prejudice for failure to perform the same during such period. If the said period of suspension of performance shall continue in excess of 30 calendar days this agreement may, at the option of either party, be cancelled without liability of either party.

10. Jurisdiction

This agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of England and Wales and any dispute under or arising out of contract shall be referred to a single arbitrator in accordance with the provisions of the Arbitration Act 1996 and according to the rules of the London Maritime Arbitrators Association.
